

WEST SCRANTON

Three-Year-Old John Harris Almost Instantly Killed on Sweetland Street—Michael Donohue Brutally Assaults His Wife.

John Harris, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Harris, of 366 Evans court, was almost instantly killed in Sweetland street last night.

The little fellow, who was a fair-haired child, the idol of his parents and all who knew him, and had just been dressed up after his day's play, ran out of the house to join the other children in the neighborhood. The house is situated a few doors off Sweetland street, in Evans' court, and the boy had crossed the street at a point in front of David C. Thomas' house, at 1216 Sweetland street, and started toward the street, between the curb and the street car track, a team of horses, owned by Liverman Joseph Kelly, came along.

The team was in charge of Joseph Griffin, who was returning from the funeral of the late Peter Reiger. The boy evidently tried to run in front of the horses, unnoticed by the driver, and was knocked down. David C. Thomas, who was sitting on the porch in front of the house, saw the accident, and ran to the child and tenderly picked him up, calling to the driver, who was then some distance away.

The little fellow was carried to his home, but before he was laid down his life had gone out. His young mother was so completely overcome that she swooned. An examination revealed the fact that the child's skull had been fractured, and his face was bruised by being thrown to the ground.

The imprint of the horse's shoe was partially visible on the boy's head. Whether he was internally injured by being run over by the carriage could not be determined, as Coroner Saltry did not deem an autopsy necessary.

Griffin was much affected by the accident. He stated that he did not see the boy and had not the slightest notion that any accident occurred until Thomas called to him.

Dr. D. W. Evans and Dr. W. Rowland Davies visited the house after the accident, but they could do nothing, as the child was dead, and Dr. W. A. Payne was called later to attend Mrs. Harris, who suffered from nervous prostration.

The father was employed at the Diamond mine up to the time of the strike, and since then has been working in Buffalo. A message was sent to him last night, apprising him of the sad occurrence.

Coroner Saltry visited the house last evening and viewed the remains and decided that an autopsy was unnecessary, death having resulted from a fracture of the skull. He decided to hold an inquest, however, and empanelled the following jurors: Charles Markey, W. A. Phillips, George Daniels, C. I. Kern, Isaac Harris and W. R. Hughes.

Donohue Was Brutal.

A story was circulated last evening that Michael Donohue, of Bulwer street, had shot his wife at his home. A Tribune man investigated the story, and learned that Donohue returned home late yesterday afternoon, partially intoxicated, and abused his wife, kicking her about the house in a disgraceful manner.

The woman's arm was quite badly injured as a result of the treatment she received, and the whole neighborhood was aroused by her screams. She refused to make a statement last evening.

A telephone message was sent to the North Scranton police station and Patrolman Watkins went to the house and placed Donohue under arrest. He was locked up in the North Scranton station house, and will be given a hearing this morning.

Hurrah for the Holidays!

"Juicy" June is over, and few people will regret its departure. It was a wet, chilly, depressing, unseasonable month, save for a few odd days, and not only checked the summer trade to some extent, but has kept back vegetation also.

Now Comes The Holiday Season

With a promise of brighter skies and more genial temperature. Of course you're going away for a few days at least, if not for the season. You'll enjoy yourself better if you can fill your needs economically and well. Such an opportunity is now presented to you at the Globe Warehouse.

Our Inventory Closes Next Week

And previous to that time anything you may want in summer holiday needs can be bought here on the most economical terms. No need to tell you why; your common sense will answer that question.

Of course, you know that there is not another stock like ours in town. The selection is greatest here, and our knowledge of your preferences enables us to buy the things you are likeliest to appreciate. If you're going away this week, it is to your interest to call and see us.
